Discover the next level for loop and sample-based music production with ACID Pro 10 Suite. It's the first and only DAW on the market that lets you split any song into individual tracks and produce music according to your own ideas. With new audio source separation technology from zynaptiq® STEM MAKER 2, remixes are now even more precise. The brand-new ACID Morph Pads allow for effect manipulation on a more intuitive level, while the award-winning Celemony Melodyne Essential provides access to the notes and sounds in your recordings and enables you to make extensive changes to both.
